Arraignment Set For Probation Officer Charged With Insurance Fraud

A Los Angeles County probation officer is scheduled to be arraigned today on insurance fraud charges, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Raymond Milton (dob 3/30/73) is expected to make his first court appearance in Department 30 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center. He is charged with two counts of insurance fraud in case BA432421.

Deputy District Attorney Angela Brunson of the Healthcare Fraud Division said that twice in early 2013 Milton is accused of altering a note from a dental office employee that could excuse him from work.

Losses are estimated to be nearly $2,400 that was paid to Milton, who is on unpaid leave, for alleged sick time he claimed, the prosecutor added.

If convicted as charged, Milton faces a possible maximum sentence of six years in jail.

The case is being investigated by the Probation Department's Professional Standards Bureau.
